

CAROLINA JOHNSON

carolina.johnson@gmail.com; 206-909-9151
1001 N 49th Street, Seattle, WA, 98103

EDUCATION

PhD, Political Science, University of Washington, Seattle, WA 2017

Dissertation: Engaging Democracy: An Institutional Theory of Participatory Budgeting

Specializing in: social science methodology, computational social science, participatory governance, political deliberation, comparative democratic institutions

Fields: Comparative politics, political methodology, political communication

MA, Political Science, University of Washington, Seattle, WA 2011

Thesis: Civic Participation and Democratic Legitimacy: Evidence from England and Wales

MPhil, Politics (Comparative Government), University of Oxford, UK 2007

Fields: Comparative government, political sociology, democratization

Thesis: Between Institutions and Inspiration: Theorizing Social Movement Dynamics through the Landless Rural Workers' Movement in Brazil

AB (High Honors), Harvard College, Cambridge, MA 2004

Social Studies and Women's Studies

Thesis: Feminist Generations: The Present and Future of a Movement Called Feminism

PUBLICATIONS

- “Variations of Institutional Design for Empowered Deliberation” (with John Gastil), Journal of Public Deliberation. 11, no. 1 (2015) – peer reviewed journal.
- Review of Women in Politics in the American City by Mirya R. Holman in Politics & Gender. 11, no. 2 (2015).
- “Civic Participation and Democratic Legitimacy: Evidence from England and Wales” Political Studies. 63, no. 4 (2015). First published online June 2014 – peer reviewed journal.
- “Sustainable Engagement: Designing Participatory Processes to Support Ongoing Public Involvement” Involve Briefing Paper (2014).
- “Who Do You Work For? Justifications of Research and Accountability to Claimed Beneficiaries” One World Trust Working Paper (2008).

WORK IN PROGRESS

- “Framing Citizenship: An Automated Text Analysis Approach to Measuring Political Culture”
- “Learning Voice, Practicing Votes: Participatory Budgeting and Turnout in Formal Elections”
- “Public Community or Mini-Public?: The Impact of Institutional Design and Participant Selection on Strong Democracies”

CONFERENCES & INVITED PRESENTATIONS

- “Mobilizing Media: Estimating the Impact of Participatory Budgeting on Community-Level Political Expression.” Paper presented at the European Consortium of Political Research General Conference, Prague, Czech Republic, September 9, 2016.
- “Amplifying Collaboration: Participatory Budgeting and Community Organizations.” Paper presented at the American Political Science Association Annual Meeting, Philadelphia, PA, September 2, 2016.
- “PB and Community Collaboration.” Invited Presentation to Participatory Budgeting Project Study Session, January 27, 2016.

- “Participatory Budgeting and Community Mobilization: Evidence from Surveys of Community Organizations.” Paper presented at ‘By the People’: Participatory Democracy, Public Engagement and Citizenship Education, Arizona State University, Phoenix, AZ, December 2015.
- “Real Money, Real Power: Participatory Budgeting in North America.” Invited panel participant at ‘By the People’: Participatory Democracy, Public Engagement and Citizenship Education, Arizona State University, Phoenix, AZ, December 2015.
- “Framing Citizenship: A Text Analysis Approach to Measuring Political Culture.” Paper presented at the American Political Science Association Annual Meeting, San Francisco, CA, September 2015.
- “Public Engagement and Participatory Governance.” Presentation to King County Communications Managers, Seattle, WA, March 2015.
- “Building Sustainable Engagement through Participatory Budgeting: PB and Civic Networks in the US and UK.” Presentation at 3rd International Conference on Participatory Budgeting, Oakland, CA, September 2014
- “An Institutional Theory of Participatory Budgeting.” Paper presented at the American Political Science Association Annual Meeting, Washington D.C, August 2014.
- “From Deliberation to Action.” Panel coordinator and chair, Frontiers of Democracy Conference, Boston, MA, July 2014.
- “Engaging Democracy? Institutions and Agendas in Participatory Budgeting.” Paper presented at Severyns-Ravenholt Seminar in Comparative Politics, University of Washington, December 2013.
- “Diverging Models of Participatory Governance: A Framework for Comparison.” Paper presented at the Western Political Science Association Meeting, Hollywood, CA, March 2013.
- “Inclusive Outreach and Public Engagement at the City of Seattle.” Roundtable coordinator and chair. National Coalition for Dialogue and Deliberation Biannual Meeting, Seattle, WA, October 2012.
- “Local Civic Participation and Perceptions of Democratic Legitimacy: Evidence from England and Wales.” Paper presented at the International Studies Association Annual Meeting, Montréal, Canada, March 2011.

AWARDS AND FELLOWSHIPS

- UW Data Science for Social Good Fellowship, 2016
- UW Graduate School Medal Finalist, 2016
- Center for Statistic and the Social Sciences Graduate Travel Grant, 2015
- National Science Foundation Doctoral Dissertation Improvement Grant, 2014-2015
- Robert Kaplan and Margaret Levi Civic Engagement Grant, 2013
- Tufts Summer Institute for Civic Studies, 2013
- David J. Olson Graduate Research Award, UW Political Science Department, 2012
- Dean’s Fellow Graduate Student Award, UW 2009-2010
- Bielby Graduate Scholarship, St Hilda’s College, 2006-2007
- Carol C Pforzheimer Research Fellowship, Harvard College, 2003
- Harvard College Research Program Award, 2003
- Women’s Studies Thesis Grant, Harvard College, 2003
- Harvard Work-Study Award for Public Service, 2002

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Instructor:

- POLS 205: Political Science as a Social Science (Summer 2014)
- Center for Social Science Computation and Research short courses: R programming, R Graphics with ggplot2, Interactive Graphics in R, Data Wrangling, Introduction to Qualitative Research with Atlas.TI.

Teaching Assistant (Graduate courses):

- POLS/CS&SS 503: Advanced Quantitative Political Methodology (Spring 2015 and 2014)

Teaching Assistant (Undergraduate courses):

- POLS 201: Introduction to Political Theory (Fall 2013, Spring 2012, Fall 2010,)
- POLS 204: Introduction to Comparative Politics (Spring 2013, Fall 2012, Winter 2011)

- POLS 334: Urban Politics (Winter 2012)
- POLS 327: Women's Rights as Human Rights (Fall 2011)
- POLS 305: Politics and the Mass Media in America (Spring 2011)

RESEARCH AND SELECTED PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- Center for Social Science Computation and Research, University of Washington
Research and Data Consultant, September 2014 – current
 Provided statistical programming and analytic consulting support to researchers from all departments of the UW; taught short courses in a variety of methodologies and software packages.
- eScience Institute, University of Washington
Data Science for Social Good Fellow, Summer 2016
 Built an app for data exploration and visualization using complex real-world data from Sound Transit's electronic fare payment system and on-board sensors for three participating transit agencies to motivate stakeholder investment in data infrastructure.
- Involve, London, UK
Visiting Research Associate, January-March 2014
 Conceived and wrote a working paper on sustainable public engagement strategies while participating in organizational activities and meetings.
- Department of Political Science, University of Washington
Research Assistant, June 2009 – Sept 2009
 Conducted background archive and bibliographic research for the project Tracing the History of Ward's Cove supervised by Professors Michael McCann and George Lovell.
- Oxford English Dictionary, Oxford University Press
Pre-editorial Researcher, September 2007 – August 2009
 Tracked changes in English language usage for major dictionary revision and surveyed a wide range of electronic resources collecting additional evidence to expand the historical record of known words.
- One World Trust, London, UK
Research Assistant, September 2007 – March 2008
 Core team researcher conducting literature review, case selection, and concept development for the research project "Accountability Principles of Research Institutes".
- Department of Politics and International Relations, University of Oxford, UK
Research Assistant, June 2006 – July 2007
 Built a comprehensive international database of terrorist organizations and conducted preliminary statistical analysis for the book How Terrorism Ends by Dr. Audrey Cronin.
 Conducted background research for archival project on U.S. executive politics by Professor Nigel Bowles.

METHODS & COMPUTATIONAL SKILLS

Methods: MLE, multi-level modeling, multivariate statistics, , machine learning methods, analysis of text-as-data, GIS, visual display of quantitative information, participant observation, qualitative interviewing

Computer packages: R, STATA, Atlas.ti, Python, SQL, LaTeX, ArcGIS, LISREL, Microsoft Office Suite.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS & SERVICE

- Board Member, North America PB Research Board, 2015 - present
- Member, American Political Science Association
- Member, National Coalition for Dialogue & Deliberation
- Reviewer, Political Research Quarterly, Journal of Communication